

Written Summary of Docket Call — Confirmation to All Counsel of Record

This letter confirms, for the record, the matters addressed during today's docket call in Linden Robotics, Inc. v. Pryor. This summary is being served on all counsel of record contemporaneously with its transmission to chambers' staff, consistent with the Court's practice of requiring written confirmation of matters resolved or scheduled during telephonic docket calls.

1. Matters Addressed

- 1 The Court confirmed the current schedule for outstanding discovery motions and set argument dates for any motions to compel not resolved by the parties' meet-and-confer process.
- 2 Counsel for Linden Robotics reiterated its position that Pryor's continued use of the disputed technical specifications constitutes ongoing misappropriation, and that expedited discovery on the scope of use remains warranted. See record.
- 3 Counsel for Pryor represented that a further response to the pending document requests would be served within the timeframe previously discussed with the Court.
- 4 The Court directed the parties to submit a joint status report in advance of the next scheduled conference.

2. Scheduling

Item	Date/Deadline	Responsible Party
Joint status report	To be filed per Court's directive at call	Both parties
Further document production (Pryor)	As represented to the Court during call	Pryor / Defense counsel
Next status conference	To be set by chambers	Court

3. Confirmation and Reservation of Rights

This summary is intended solely to memorialize the substance of today's call for the convenience of all counsel and does not purport to alter, waive, or expand any party's rights, positions, or obligations under the operative pleadings, the discovery rules, or any prior order of the Court. Linden Robotics reserves all rights, including without limitation its right to seek expedited relief on the misappropriation issues addressed above. See record.

Please advise promptly if any counsel's recollection of the call differs from the summary set forth above, so that any disagreement can be raised with the Court before the next conference.

Respectfully submitted, Bennett Ashworth Partner, Commercial Litigation
